

John and Joseph Elasi are elated with their wins at the 2005 Inner-West Weekly Community Business Awards.

Photo: JAMES HORAN

Brothers floor 'em

Floormania voted our best business

Inner-West Weekly

THE staff at Floormania almost went through the roof when announced as the Inner-West Weekly Community Business Award's business of the year.

For John and Joseph Elasi, winning of men and women with decades of business experience left the brothers almost speechless.

"I'm in shock," John said.

"We've been open for only nine

— and I'm meant to be opening the shop tomorrow (Saturday)."

- Feras Karem from Ashfield Chemworld almost wore a path from his table to the stage after picking up

THE TOP AWARDS

Business of the year: Floormania, Concord.

Business person of the year: Feras Karem, of Chemworld Ashfield.

Employee of the year: Feras